Thursday Night at the Movies

February 20 & 27, March 6 & 13

Penn State Devorris Downtown Center

February 20, 2014

The Other Son: Drama, 105 minutes, French & Hebrew, with English subtitles, made in France, 2012. As he prepares to join the Israeli army for his national service, Joseph discovers he is not his parents' biological son, but that he was inadvertently switched at birth with Yassin, the son of a Palestinian family from the West Bank. This revelation turns the lives of these two families upside-down.

Annie Hall: Comedy, 93 minutes, English, made in 1977. A romantic comedy following two mismatched New York neurotics: Alvy, a New York City TV writer and Annie, his aspiring actress/singer girlfriend who's originally from the Midwest. The film takes you through the couple's love lives, before and after their relationship.
FAMILY-FRIENDLY FILM!

Defiant Requiem: Documentary, 85 minutes, English, made in 2012.

Through hunger, disease, and slave labor, the Jewish inmates of Terezin hold onto their humanity by staging plays, composing opera and using paper and ink to record the horrors around them. Performing Verdi's Requiem, the choir would ultimately confront the Nazis face to face... and sing to them what they dare not say.

March 6, 2014

Hava Nagila: The Movie: Documentary/Drama, 75 minutes, English, made in 2013. The song you thought you knew. The story you won't believe. Hava Nagila is much more than a tale of Jewish kitsch and bad bar mitzvah fashions. It carries with it an entire constellation of history, values and hopes for the future.

FAMILY-FRIENDLY FILM!
